

SPARK WEBINAR SERIES

Disputatio: A Framework for Discourse in the Dominican Tradition

Featuring

Edward D. Dunar, PhD

Director of the Meister Eckhart Center for Catholic and Dominican Life at Albertus Magnus College

Nate Friday

Director of Formation, DVM
Under his leadership at Dominican High School, Friday led the creation and implementation of Disputatio
Framework for Public Discourse Program

Thursday, September 26

1:00 pm ET/ 12:00pm CT/ 10:00am PT

What lessons can we learn from the difficult debates of St. Dominic's time?

Navigating challenging topics across a community can be difficult, especially during politically-charged moments. Often differences of opinion or disagreements lack a goal of finding common ground and, instead, focus on who is right and who is wrong.

Catholic school communities are invited to consider less polarizing approaches. Anchored in the Catholic tradition and emanating from the life of St. Dominic, disputatio offers a framework to find points of convergence where views may align, collectively seek, and possibly reveal, God's truth, veritas.

Join us as we kick-off our 2024-25
webinar series with this compelling and timely 1-hr discussion.
To register for this webinar,
click below:

Rublev's Old Testament Trinity, (1420s). Reaktion Books

Disputatio Registration Form

Open to all members of Dominican sponsored and Dominican legacy schools.

