Connie was born in 1933 to Lucille Noll and Omer Edward Haug. She professed her perpetual vows in 1958 and dedicated the next 66 years of her life to living those vows.

Sr. Connie earned a Nursing Diploma from St. Francis Hospital, Topeka, KS, a Bachelor of Science in Nursing Education from St. Mary College, Leavenworth, KS, and a Master of Nursing from Texas U, Denton, TX.

Connie founded and served as Executive Director/President of Golden Belt Home Health, now part of the University of Kansas Health System. She later became Director of Nursing at the Clinic for the Poor in Alabama before returning to Kansas. From the late 90s until 2014, Connie worked in Pastoral Ministry at a Senior Community near her home. Her final ministry, spent in prayer and presence, was at the Great Bend Motherhouse, where she served for the last ten years of her life.

In her preaching at the funeral, Sr. Barbara Kane reflected on her genuine smile and her love of people, specifically children, saying, “Connie would light up when employees brought children or grandchildren to the infirmery.”

Sister Dominic is survived by her brother Michael (Betty) Haug, sisters Jeanne (Tom) Heiman, Mary Haug of Centralia, Regina (Ed) Aldrine, and Cathy Wynkoop, along with numerous nieces and nephews.
