

The Board of Directors announces Kevin Gross will be stepping down as Executive Director on March 14, 2025, as he moves on to a new professional opportunity. We appreciate his contributions and leadership during his tenure and wish him success in his next endeavor.

Crown Point Ecology Center remains deeply committed to its mission, and this transition marks an opportunity to build on our strong foundation. The Board is actively preparing for the next phase of leadership, ensuring that our programs, partnerships, and initiatives continue without interruption.

With the dedication of our talented staff and the support of our community, Crown Point is well-positioned for continued growth and impact. We will provide updates on the leadership transition and the search for a new Executive Director in the coming weeks.

Thank you for your continued support of Crown Point Ecology Center.
