

Dominican Community Living and Ministry Opportunity at Heartland Farm

The Dominican Sisters of Peace are seeking one or more Dominican Sisters and/or Associates to join the residential community/staff and serve in a support role at Heartland Farm in Pawnee Rock, Kansas, an ecological ministry of the congregation. Qualifications include knowledge of and desire to learn values and practices of ecology and sustainability; desire to live on-site in a rural area; gift of hospitality – welcoming guests, volunteers, public; and general good health and mobility – able to navigate stairs, uneven ground, outdoors. In addition, this person is invited to share skills related to the ministry, examples include spirituality, cooking, teaching and/or practicing sustainable skills like canning, crafting, or fiber arts, and the ability to do light housekeeping, shopping, phone reception, gardening, etc.

This would be an Unpaid position with Room and Board provided, unless the person qualifies for, applies for, and obtains an open position at the farm.

If you are interested in finding out more about the community life and Heartland Farm, Sisters, please contact your Mission Group Coordinator to discern this possibility; Associates, please contact Sister Jane Belanger at Jane.Belanger@oppeace.org.
