

When Dominican Sisters of Peace attended the recent Ignatian Family Teach-in, they asked the young people in attendance to determine how they would help the new Pope, Leo XIV, build peace. These were written on post-it notes and added to our Pope Leo cutout.

Here is how young people want to build peace:

- Creating Inclusion for All
- Keep fighting for the most vulnerable
- Help educate that all are one under the kingdom of God
- Pray for those who are going through humanitarian issues
- Show empathy for others
- Love unconditional
- Love without conditions
- Be active in Eco-Justice and building hope
- Give Kindness! Kindness is free!
- Speak truth in love!
- Look at everyone as if you were looking at Jesus
- Love the body that God made for me!
- Hold HIM always in your heart!
- Pray for action against Catholic repression in China
- Love all the good people of the world!!!!
- Be Inclusive
- LOVE all! No matter the gender, race, or sexuality.
